

Casa de Campo Recognized As WORLD'S LEADING GOLF RESORT For Fifth Consecutive Year At The World Travel Awards

Qatar, Doha – January 12, 2012 – At the annual World Travel Awards, a black-tie gala held last night in Qatar, the world's most important decision makers in travel came together to hear who travel agents around the world acknowledged as the very best in travel throughout 2011. For the 5th consecutive year, Casa de Campo on the southeast coast of the Dominican Republic was recognized as the World's Leading Golf Resort. Dr. Claudio Silvestri, President and CEO of Premier Resorts & Hotels, the management company for Casa de Campo was at the event.

“This honor is especially awe-inspiring for us as 40 years ago, Pete Dye opened the our first golf course – the Teeth of the Dog – with seven holes right on the Caribbean Sea, that consistently ranks as the #1 course in the region” said Silvestri. “And now 4 decades later, with three distinctly different golf courses for hotel guests and a private membership course, Casa de Campo on its grounds has a total of 90-holes all designed by Pete Dye, 63 for hotel guests to play. And with over 32,000 golf courses around the globe Casa de Campo – acknowledged as the best resort to play golf in the world for the 5th consecutive year.... that's quite an honor and one we are very proud of.”

Fall 2011, Casa de Campo was awarded top accolades at the regional ceremonies of the World Travel Awards recognized as: Dominican Republic's Leading Spa Resort; Dominican Republic's Leading Resort; Dominican Republic's Leading Golf Resort; Caribbean's Leading Resort and the Caribbean's Leading Golf Resort.

Along with the stellar golf including a Jim McLean Golf School, Casa de Campo is home to championship polo, shooting, private beaches, tennis, the Altos de Chavon cultural village, fine dining and more, making it the ideal Caribbean destination to relax in and rediscover. For travel in 2012 in honor of the renowned golf, Casa de Campo management introduces the Golf Legends package available for stays on EP or inclusive plan that includes daily green fees, use of the fitness center and more. Along with other packages, additional savings that can be added onto our travel packages include Early Booking Bonus' now for travel through April and Advance Rewards for additional savings on trips booked 90 days in advance of travel or more. Casa de Campo is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.
