

CASA DE CAMPO RESORT & VILLAS CONTINUES
'FLAVORS OF THE WORLD' WITH TOP LONDON CHEF

Next Edition of the 2017 Series to Take Place from July 21st to 23rd with Guest Chef Alyn Williams

La Romana, D.R. — (JUNE 27, 2017) — Casa de Campo Resort & Villas is pleased to announce the next chapter in the 'Flavors of the World' culinary experience that will transport guests to London from July 21-23, 2017. Top London chef Alyn Williams will travel "across the pond" to showcase his skills at the luxury Dominican resort as another great addition to the 'Flavors of the World' series. The gastronomic journey highlights the collection of casual, gourmet, and fine-dining options available at Casa de Campo by pairing internationally-renowned chefs with the resort's creative culinary team, led by Executive Chef Anthony Masas, in the creation of unique, weekend-long culinary affairs that each feature a different flavor of the world and offering epicureans the opportunity to mingle with globally-recognized talent.

The London-born Chef Williams' culinary experience began working with Marcus Wareing where he refined his modern French cooking style as the head chef at The Berkeley. He later honed his skills working at a wide variety of establishments, such as Les Alouettes in Surrey and Le Champignon Sauvage in Cheltenham in the U.K., as well as at distinguished U.S. restaurants in Colorado and California. He also worked along with Gordon Ramsay at Teatro in London before transitioning to the Gordon Ramsay Holdings group and taking a role as sous-chef at Ramsay's three star Michelin restaurant. Following his time with Ramsay, Chef Williams went to the Groucho Club in London's Soho as head chef to raise the club's standards and oversee the company's portfolio. In 2008, Alyn rejoined Marcus Wareing as head chef, The Berkeley, during which time the restaurant received its second Michelin star, a full five Rosettes with the AA Restaurant Guide, a consistent 8/10 rating with the Good Food Guide, and inclusion in the San Pellegrino World's Best Restaurants.

The weekend's culinary events, taking place from July 21-23, will include exclusive pairing dinners on the nights of Friday, July 21st and Saturday, July 22nd, followed by a more casual brunch on Sunday, July 23rd. The weekend festivities will also feature a special Macallan tasting and high tea experiences, thanks in part to the support of the British Embassy. The event is sponsored by Mastercard, Hyundai, Mini, Macallan, Vinos S.A., Brugal XV, Listin Diario, Gentleman Magazine, Acqua Panna and S. Pellegrino.

Traveling gourmands that wish to attend this once-in-a-lifetime collaboration at Casa de Campo can take advantage of Summer Caribbean Sale that includes 30% off discount at room rates starting at $133 per room, per night. Standalone reservations for the culinary events cost $125 per person.

Details are still being confirmed for the remainder of the 2017 series, but cuisines to be featured include:

- Flavors of the World – Buenos Aires: August 11th – 13th with Fernando Rivarola
- Flavors of the World – New Orleans: October with Tory McPhail from Commander’s Palace
- Flavors of the World – New York: November with Chef Marco Canora.

To book your stay or make a reservation for any of the Flavors of the World events, please call the resort directly at (855) 877-3643 or (800) 336-5520 or visit www.casadecampo.com.do.

About Casa de Campo:

Casa de Campo Resort & Villas – a member of The Leading Hotels of the World – attracts affluent travelers with the offering of spacious hotel rooms, suites and luxury villas. Expect gourmet cuisine and fine wines and spirits throughout the destination’s restaurants and bars, a 370-slip Marina & Yacht Club, Polo & Equestrian Club, La Terraza Tennis Center and 245-acre Shooting Club. Spanning 7,000 tropical acres on the southeastern coast of the Dominican Republic, this luxury Caribbean destination is also home to three of the game’s most difficult courses all designed by Pete Dye, including Teeth of the Dog, Dye Fore and Links. Casa de Campo is also home to Altos de Chavón – an artisan’s village modeled after a 16th century Mediterranean city with boutique shops, museums and a 5,000-seat Grecian-style amphitheater inaugurated by Frank Sinatra in August of 1982.

For ease of arrival, La Romana International Airport (LRM) is five minutes from check-in and serviced by JetBlue Airways (now with direct flights from JFK three times a week) and seasonally by American Airlines (non-stop service from MIA). A short drive away, Santo Domingo (SDQ) and Punta Cana (PUJ) operate daily direct flights from all major U.S. airports.
