

Italian flavors arrive at Casa de Campo's Flavors of the World

La Romana, August 8, 2016. Casa de Campo Resort & Villas will be wearing the colors of the Italian flag to celebrate this new version of its gastronomic initiative Flavors of the World from August 19 to August 21.

This time around, Italian cuisine will be represented by Chef Alba Esteve Ruiz during two masterful dinners on Friday and Saturday at 8 pm at the restaurant La Piazzetta in Altos de Chavon, and will be part of the activities that can be enjoyed during the entire weekend.

Ruiz started her career moving between Alicante, Valencia and Gerona, being this latter city where she mingled with the masters of international cuisine working with master baker Paco Torreblanca and later at El Celler de Can Roca, a restaurant qualified with 3 Michelin stars and recognized as the best restaurant in the world on several occasions.

The young Chef later moved to Italy, where her first experience on the peninsula was in Abruzzo, at the restaurant La Bandiera in Civitella Casanova.

After traveling around the country, in March 2013 she began working at the restaurant Marzapane in Rome, garnering very reviews and recognition on a national and international level, Chef Alba was recognized with 2 forks in the Gambero Rosso guide and as most promising chef of 2014."

After the success of the previous editions of Flavors of the World, this will be the fourth edition of the event, sponsored by such brands and companies like Sunix, Tropigas, Orange, Brugal XV, Chivas 18, Beefeater 24, Vinos S.A., among others.

With each passing month, there are more people interested in learning about international cuisine, and the Flavors of the World event attracts food lovers to the celebrations that are held in different restaurants around Casa de Campo and highlight a different country during each event.

In September, the celebration will be Flavors of the World Mexico and will include a large variety of activities and gastronomic experiences during an entire weekend.
