CASA DE CAMPO RESORT & VILLAS RECEIVES
BEST INTERNATIONAL HOTEL AND PROPERTY AWARD

LA ROMANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC — (October 13, 2017) — Casa de Campo Resort & Villas has been granted the Silver Award for Best International Hotel and Property at the Prevue magazine 2017 Visionary Awards. Bestowed annually to acknowledge the forward-thinking destinations, hotels & resorts, cruise lines and airlines of the industry, the Visionary Award recognized the resort for its continued excellence in the meetings and incentives industry.

“Casa de Campo is ecstatic, and so grateful to the readers of Prevue and their esteemed advisory board, to receive the 2017 Visionary Award,” said Andrés Pichardo Rosenberg, President at Casa de Campo Resort & Villas. “The award is a demonstration of the resort’s ongoing dedication to providing the best experience and service to our guests.”

Casa de Campo Resort & Villas makes the ultimate meeting destination with 7,000 acres of luxury accommodations, amenities and engaging activities designed to help strengthen teams, provide corporate incentives, and offer entertainment and fun for all.

With three world-famous golf courses on site, a relaxing spa, and an endless array of outdoor sports—including tennis, shooting, and equestrian activities—Casa de Campo is an ideal destination for incentive groups, conferences, corporate retreats, or special events. Extensive meeting facilities include two well-appointed conference centers, a ballroom, numerous boardrooms, breathtaking outdoor spaces, restaurants and bars, villa homes, plazas and a 5,000-seat amphitheater. For those set to relax before or after work, beautiful beaches, guided excursions, live music, fine dining or even a moonlight stroll along the Marina offer a full range of meeting and conference options for teams of all shapes, sizes, and needs.
