

Casa de Campo Resort & Villas Resumes Normal Operations in the aftermath of Hurricane Maria

LA ROMANA, D.R. (September 22nd, 2017) — Upon the safety precautions taken throughout Hurricane Maria, the second storm of the season affecting Dominican Republic, the staff at Casa de Campo Resort & Villas are expeditiously working to return operations back to normal.

During this event, personnel at Casa de Campo remained at close contact with local authorities and, as always, took guidance and directions from them when needed, with the absolute collaboration of each guest at the resort.

“As of today, we are pleased to announce that all of our resort amenities and activities are fully reopened and operational. We are thankful we did not sustain any damages and that our guests can continue to enjoy the full Casa de Campo experience. We truly appreciate our team’s commitment and dedication to ensure everyone’s safety and look forward to having our guests enjoy their time again here with us,” said Andrés Pichardo Rosenberg, President at Casa de Campo Resort & Villas.

“Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of our neighboring resorts that were devastated from the past hurricanes and we are reaching out to assist them in any way that we can,” said Andres Pichardo Rosenberg.

During Hurricane María, Casa de Campo offered each guest with shelter options, fully equipped with first aid services, food and beverage, entertainment, and complimentary WIFI.

On that note, said Jason Kycek, Sr. Vice President of Sales & Marketing, Casa de Campo has implemented our guests with a 100% HURRICANE GUARANTEE and we are working closely with all of our industry partners to support the rebooking and refunding process.

About Casa de Campo

Casa de Campo Resort & Villas – a member of The Leading Hotels of the World – attracts affluent travelers with the offering of spacious hotel rooms, suites and luxury villas. Expect gourmet cuisine and fine wines and spirits throughout the destination’s restaurants and bars, a 370-slip Marina & Yacht Club, Polo & Equestrian Club, La Terraza Tennis Center and 245-acre Shooting Club. Spanning 7,000 tropical acres on the southeastern coast of the Dominican Republic, this luxury Caribbean destination is also home to three of the game’s most difficult courses all designed by Pete Dye, including Teeth of the Dog, Dye Fore and The Links. Casa de Campo is also home to Altos de Chavón – an artisan’s village modeled after a 16th century Mediterranean city with boutique shops, museums and a 5,000-seat Grecian-style amphitheater inaugurated by Frank Sinatra in August of 1982.

For ease of arrival, La Romana International Airport (LRM) is five minutes from check-in and serviced by JetBlue Airways (now with direct flights from JFK three times a week) and seasonally by American Airlines (non-stop service from MIA). A short drive away, Santo Domingo (SDQ) and Punta Cana (PUJ) operate daily direct flights from all major U.S. airports.
