At Casa de Campo Resort & Villas el Amor está en el Aire

Romantic Escapades Designed to Ignite a Spark for Tórtolas del Amor with Privacy, Dominican-born Aphrodisiacs & a Concierge del Amor

LA ROMANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC – January 30, 2019 — El amor está en el aire at Casa de Campo Resort & Villas. This simply means love is in the air, yet it sounds more romantic in Spanish. The luxury resort is setting the stage for

Casa de Campo offers couples a memorable romantic rendezvous with a love-laden experience to enjoy. Tórtolas del Amor (love birds) will have access to a Concierge del Amor (Romance Concierge) who will set up private experiences that are designed to help couples disconnect from distractions and reconnect with one another. Here is what couples can look forward to at Casa de Campo Resort & Villas:

Amor Gigante (Giant Love)

- Bed – This is intended to help duos get back to the basics. It includes accommodations for two nights with an ultra-comfortable bed that will make couples want to linger longer in the room.
- Breakfast – Once Tórtolas del amor do manage to get up and out, daily breakfast is included with a table for two overlooking the golf course.
- Dominican-born Aphrodisiac – Mamajuana, even the name sounds seductive. A bottle of this Dominican-made alcohol, which has long been known as an aphrodisiac, will be waiting for couples in their room upon arrival to sip and share. The history of Mamajuana dates back 1,000 years; original recipes were based on the collection of herbs, root, bark and plants that were made into an herbal tea. It was once used as a vitality drink and was only available “underground.” The recipe has evolved throughout the years; now it is made by combining dark rum, red wine and honey, and then allowing that mixture to soak with tree bark and herbs. Dominicans refer to it as the “baby maker” based on its stimulating effect for both men and women.

- Ah, Spa – Couples will enjoy a 50-minute couples massage at the spa.

Upon request the Concierge del Amor can plan surprises for duos to enjoy. A private catamaran sail on a 40-foot vessel, massages on the beach, exclusive cabanas and more are available (additional fees apply).

Located on the south eastern coast of the Dominican Republic, the impressive resort spans 7,000 acres and features a five-star hotel along with an expansive collection of luxury villas. There is championship-level golf, a 300-horse equestrian center, tennis, spa and an exclusive marina.

Amor Gigante is available starting from $899 (additional nights are available and priced from $XXX).*
