Casa de Campo Resort & Villas Receives Golf Digest Editors' Choice Award

(LA ROMANA, Dominican Republic) – Casa de Campo Resort & Villas – home to the Caribbean's premier, luxury golf experiences, including the iconic Teeth of the Dog course – has received Golf Digest's coveted "Editors' Choice Award" in the "Best Resorts Caribbean / Bermuda" category.

The Editors' Choice Awards annually honors the "best of the best" in 38 industry categories. Casa de Campo received the prestigious accolade in 2017 and 2018 as well.

Most notably, the legendary resort is the home to Pete Dye's masterpiece design, Teeth of the Dog. Since opening in 1971, the ocean hugging course has been a "bucket list" item for those seeking to play one of the top 50 layouts in the world. "The Heaven 7" oceanfront holes are astoundingly beautiful, causing Dye to famously quip: "I created 11 holes and God created seven."

"We're thrilled to once again receive this prestigious honor from Golf Digest," says Jason Kycek, senior vice-president of sales and marketing. "Accolades such as the Editors' Choice Award are testament to our world-class golf and resort amenities as well as our exemplary customer care, we invite one and all to visit us for a getaway in paradise."

The offer includes deluxe accommodations in the resort's recently renovated guest rooms, full daily breakfast buffet at Lago Restaurant, use of a four-passenger golf cart to travel throughout the resort, complimentary Wi-Fi and use of the resort's fitness center. All golf rounds are based on availability and include arrival and departure days.

The "Unlimited Teeth of the Dog All Inclusive" golf package features all the components above plus daily breakfast, lunch, snacks, dinner and drinks by the glass at resort signature restaurants or room service (extra delivery charge), unlimited horseback riding, use of the property's tennis courts, one round at the 245-acre Shooting Club, non-motorized water sports and family program activities. This offer starts at $399 per person, per night also through Oct. 31.

Casa de Campo also offers an array of exceptional fully-appointed villas perfect for golf groups and families. The villa options range from three to 11 bedrooms with stylish living areas, a private pool as well as myriad creature comforts.
